

GERMANS RETIRING ALONG 200 MILE FRONT

LOCAL BOYS HELD VERY FRONT LINE; HURLED HUNS BACK WITH HEAVY LOSSES

COMPANIES E AND F BORE THE BRUNT OF GERMAN CHARGE IN MASS FORMATION.

The Dead Piled Deep

GALLANT ALBANIANS WENT OVER THE TOP AND SWEEP ENEMY ALONG FOR TWELVE MILES.

The story of how Company F of Gadsden and Company E of the Twin Cities held the front line trenches in the fiercest of the recent fighting in France, piling the German dead three deep before their barbed wire entanglements, and with the loss of but a very few men is told by Sergt. Tom Whitworth, of Gadsden, who has been sent home as an instructor. After holding their lines against fearful odds, the Alabama boys "went over the top" and drove the enemy back for twelve miles, with small losses. Many of the men were wounded but only a few were killed.

Sergt. Whitworth in writing of the exploits of the Rainbow Division says:

Guess you will want to hear about what we did while we were over there, so here is history from the time we landed up to the present, so here goes: Landing in England, we stayed there for five or six days and then went across the channel, and as there were not very many of our troops in France at that time it was hard for us to get supplies. We made a 90-mile hike in two feet of snow, weren't fed any too well, and as we hadn't been paid off for a couple of months, smoking tobacco, cigarettes and money were as scarce as Y. M. C. A. men in the front trenches. We hiked in snow, ate in snow and slept in snow. We finally reached our training quarters and drilled until late in February.

We then took quite a sector, which was being held by the French. It was quiet at that time, but after the Americans had been in there for a while business picked up. Our artillery woke them up and they soon found out who they were facing. Fighting parties were being pulled off every night on all parts of the sector. When they would come over on us, very few of them would go back, and when we pulled a raid we generally brought back a few Boches.

We stayed on this sector for three months when we were relieved by another division. We thought we were going back for a rest, so caught a train and rode a couple of nights and then hiked 20 miles the next night. When we came to a rest camp, all of the boys were tickled to death as they thought we were there for a long rest.

Ready for Drive.
Well, we did rest (all that day) and hiked 18 miles the next night into another sector. We learned that the Boche were going to make a big drive in a few days. We stayed there and waited until July 15, when the drive started.

They put over six-hour barrage, and we kept our gas masks on for six hours. We then pulled them off, as the Boche began to advance. They advanced in mass formation, and they were so thick you could shoot at one, miss him and kill another. When they would get close to our trenches we would give them a few hand grenades and then them out. They tried to drive us back, but our line was firm and they gave it up after five and one-half hours. We had them stacked up in front of our wire two and three deep and it was the same way all over the 50-mile front, officers told me.

I was sent out on patrol two nights later and we walked on the dead for a couple of miles, and as dead Boche doesn't smell any too good, the odor was something fierce. We had to put on our gas masks to keep from getting sick.

Gadsden and Decatur.
Company F from Gadsden and Company E from Decatur were the only companies of the 167th in the front lines, as all other companies were back in support and we did not have to call upon them. We had five men killed and 25 wounded slightly. The two companies received great praise from General Foch, the great French general. We were relieved a few nights later by the French and we were sent to another sector, where the Ma-

CHICAGO FEDERAL BUILDING BOMBED; 100 I. W. W.'S ARE UNDER ARREST

(International News Service.)

Chicago, Sept. 5.—The federal building bomb that killed four persons and injured a score of others was to have been exploded during the great labor day parade with the expectation that it would wipe out hundreds of lives. This information was made public here today by one of the federal authorities. Knowledge of the plot had caused the officers to scatter hundreds of operatives among the marchers, and to put 3,500 federal soldiers around the federal building. Federal officers are quiet on evidence that they are uncovering.

(International News Service.)

Chicago, Sept. 5.—The man who placed a bomb yesterday killing four persons, injuring a score of others and tearing a hole in the federal building here, is today reported under arrest. Officials investigating the crime however refused to confirm the report.

ment rushed from Camp Grant at Rockford, surrounded the building, while the dragnet was spread for I. W. W. suspects in connection with the explosion. More than 100 are under arrest today.

Fearing violence from Irish citizens, officials have thrown a strong guard around the jail where the 97 I. W. W.'s sentenced to terms in the federal penitentiary are held pending the trip to Ft. Leavenworth.

American and French forces crossed the Vesle river and found that the Germans had begun falling back towards the Aisne. The allied forces advanced half way to the Aisne from the Vesle.

Allied forces on the Picardy front made a general advance in the direction of Cambrai.

German counter attacks north of the Cambrai-Bapaume road were smashed.

It was definitely established that Lens has been evacuated by the Germans, but the town is so full of gas that it has not yet been fully occupied by the British.

ALBANY ALLIED ARMY TO MAKE INTENSIVE CANVASS.

Atlee Hoff, Albany War Saving Stamp chairman, announces that a three-day campaign for the sale of War Saving Stamps will be put on beginning Monday, Sept. 9. The plan is to make a strong drive at this time and get it completed before the Liberty Loan campaign comes on. It is expected that many people who subscribed during the last stamp campaign, will see their way clear to increase their subscriptions, and those who did not subscribe at that time will be given an opportunity to do so, as the allied army organization will call on every family in Albany.

This army organization has been given strong endorsement by the county and state council of defense, and is now ready to handle the war campaigns as they come up.

"Rabbit" Curry, Football Idol, Is Killed in Action

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 5.—Another Vanderbilt man has fallen in battle while fighting for his country, the casualty lists carrying the name of Lieut. Irby Rice Curry, one of the most popular men who ever attended the university. During his school days, Lieut. Curry won fame not only as a scholar, but was the idol of the football squad, which he captained during the last year of his stay at the university. Owing to his distinctive stature, he was called "Rabbit" by his team-mates, and the name clung to him throughout his college days.

Confirmation of Lieutenant Curry's death, contained in the press dispatches, was received in a brief telegram received by the registrar's office at the university. No details were given in either dispatch, but those who knew the young soldier need not be told that he fell fighting to the last, as he had seen him tested in too many hard-fought gridiron battles to doubt for a moment that he would shirk when the crucial test came.

AMERICANS CROSS THE VESLE RIVER; DRIVE HUNS TOWARD AISNE

SAMMIES STRIKE EFFECTIVE BLOW AND CAPTURE IMPORTANT HIGH GROUND

BRITISH ADVANCE IS CONTINUING

French Also Move Up as the Huns Give Way Slowly

American troops, driving forward from the Vesle river, have captured the high ground of great strategic importance dominating the Vesle valley. This is the first big advance made by the Americans since the Vesle river was reached, and gives Gen. Pershing's men an excellent opportunity for a thrust against the Aisne.

The Germans are falling back over a wide front, estimated at more than 200 miles.

The French have passed Juiscard and have forced the crossing of the Somme canal east of Nesle. German resistance has again stiffened, however, and both the French and British war offices report violent counter attacks.

The British in Flanders have continued their drive and are winning more ground. Since Sunday the British have captured 16,000 prisoners.

(International News Service.)

London, Sept. 5.—Since August 1 the British, French and Americans have captured 110,000 German prisoners. Forty thousand of these were taken by the Americans and French and the balance by the British. The chief feature of the fighting has been the extraordinarily small losses of the allies.

(International News Service.)

Paris, Sept. 5.—(5 p. m.)—Chauny has been evacuated by the Germans. American cavalry has crossed the Vesle and is advancing towards the Aisne.

Paris, Sept. 5.—American and French forces have reached the Aisne river at several points, it was learned by the I. N. S. this afternoon. The advance by the Franco-Americans from the Vesle to the Aisne is about five miles, all made since yesterday.

(International News Service.)

Berlin, Sept. 5.—(Via London)—"Between the Oise and Somme rivers we continued our movements from the region of Roye on Tuesday night and freed ourselves of the enemy without a fight," the German war office claimed in an official statement today.

(International News Service.)

With the American Army on the Aisne-Vesle Front, Sept. 5.—French and American forces are advancing northward on the Aisne. The main forces have not encountered many machine gun nests.

Paris, Sept. 5.—(Noon)—Further progress over a wide front and the repulse of two counter attacks were reported by the French war office today. East of the Canal Du Nord the French maintained their contact with the Germans, pushing onward. Progress was made in the direction of the Aisne river. The French have crossed the Canal Du Nord de la Somme and have carried their lines to the border of Bertincourt.

Clemency, Bray and Missy-sur-Aisne have been captured. The Vesle river has been crossed at new points by French troops. American forces are holding Cretes heights, dominating the Aisne river.

(International News Service.)

London, Sept. 5.—(11:31 a. m.)—Ploegstreet, on the Flanders front, has been captured by the British, the war office announced today. In the past four days the British have captured 16,000 prisoners and 100 guns.

Hill No. 63 southwest of Messines has been taken by the British.

(International News Service.)

London, Sept. 5.—The Germans are falling back over a front of 188 miles before the blows of the allied armies in France, according to a news agency dispatch from the battle front today.

The Germans are falling back in five different sectors—the Lys, Scarpe, Somme, Ailette and Vesle. They are destroying their depots as they retreat.

(International News Service.)

London, Sept. 5.—The allied troops that forced a crossing of the Canal Du Nord on the Picardy battle front are advancing all along the line to the east of the stream, according to information from the zone of action today. French and American forces pounding the German positions between the Ailette and Aisne rivers took 1,500 prisoners yesterday.

(International News Service.)

With the American Army on the Vesle-Aisne Front, Sept. 4.—(8 p. m.)—The Americans have advanced nearly half way from the Vesle to the Aisne river since this afternoon. They are beyond Vauxvere, Blancy and Fismes. The rivers at this point are nearly five miles apart. The Americans encountered hardly any machine gun posts, indicating that the Germans have withdrawn nearly all of their forces north of the Vesle. In crossing the river the American patrols affected a crossing by swimming or fording the stream.

SOLDIER BOYS OFF FOR CAMP PIKE

BIG CROWD AT STATION. PLENTY OF SMOOKS AND EATS.

With the farewells of thousands of persons who had gathered at the union station at Decatur ringing in their ears, 71 Morgan county selectmen—the flower of the county's young manhood, all of them having just become of age—pulled out for Camp Pike, Ark., at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon on a delayed train. The selectmen were in charge of Milton Lipscomb, a popular Decatur boy.

The train also carried a contingent of sixty-five men from Limestone county and twenty-eight from Cullman county. It was a joyful bunch, the youngsters being eager to get into the fighting game and do their "bit" towards getting the Kaiser.

Plenty of Smokes.

Smokes for the soldier boys, as well as sandwiches galore, were much in evidence. Due to the efforts of Mrs. John Almon, chairman of the county Red Cross canteen, a neat sum had been raised for the purchase of cigars and cigarettes, while many patriotic women had aided her in preparing sandwiches, which were distributed as freely among the Cullman and Limestone selectmen as among those from Morgan. At the Masonic Theatre last night, following the showing of the historic picture, "The Beast of Berlin," Henry Spielberger, a four minute speaker, had called for a collection for the smoke fund. Hats were passed by H. F. Henley, A. B. Codrington, Burton Barte and John L. Proctor. When the coins were counted it was found that the sum total was $37.53, which was turned over to Mrs. William McNeill, who was assisting Mrs. Almon in the canteen work. The audience, aroused to a high pitch of patriotic fervor, gave freely and willingly, and also joined lustily in the notes of "The Star Spangled Banner," as led by Miss Bassett, county director of community sings.

Nine for Camp McClellan. Nine limited service men also left shortly after noon for Camp McClellan, at Annisson.

THE SIGNIFICANT MODESTY OF THE GERMAN CROWN PRINCE

"To hold our own and not let ourselves be vanquished," is the war aim of the German Crown Prince, if he is correctly quoted in an interview given recently to a Berlin newspaper. The words are the most significant that have ever fallen from the lips of a Hohenzollern; they are the voiced admission of impending German defeat.

"We must never forget one thing—that we are waging a war of defense," the Kaiser said. And a gallant world will swallow this platitude, for it knows that for forty years the Kaiser and his war lords have spurred on efficiency solely for the pleasure of sacrificing German treasure and German blood in exchange for the bauble of "holding their own" and "waging a war of defense." It is easily conceivable that a nation which had peace would endure four years of terrible warfare merely for the satisfaction that comes from having that peace back again. Prussianism, as the Crown Prince now states it, is but a military lover who quarrels with its mistress—the world—so that it may enjoy the caresses that come with reconciliation.

Had the Crown Prince been more frank, had he been tinged with American regard for the sanctity of the truth, he would have confessed openly and boldly that the tide has turned against militarism and that the war is already won by the allies. He has said the same thing in a different way, a circuitous way hedged in by falsehood and deceit.

GERARD AS THE SUCCESSOR OF AMBASSADOR PAIGE

If James W. Gerard, ambassador to Berlin in those trying days when the Kaiser was sending warning messages to President Wilson and boasting that the American executive was moored to the "peace at any price" doctrine, should care to again become the diplomatic representative abroad of the great American republic, he has earned the right to appointment as ambassador to the United Kingdom, succeeding Ambassador Paige, who has resigned. The ambassador to the court of St. James is usually looked upon as the head of the foreign diplomatic service abroad, although the events incident to the war placed Mr. Gerard for awhile more squarely in the spotlight than were his colleagues. While at Berlin, Mr. Gerard had ample opportunity to show the stuff of which he was made, and there is no doubt but that his personality and influence had much to do with the entry of the United States into the world conflict before it was too late. A less courageous and a less frank ambassador might have failed in the crisis which confronted Gerard. If he seeks further diplomatic honors, he is entitled to them.

President Wilson has called on the Boy Scouts to help push the sale of fourth Liberty Loan bonds. He will find them all willing workers and ready volunteers.

At any rate, that "autoless Sunday" placed everybody on an equal footing.

LOCAL BOYS HELD VERY FRONT LINE

rines had done such wonderful work.

The Germans were on the run on this sector and the Rainbow Division relieved another American division and we drove them 12 miles.
The old Fourth Alabama fought as our forefathers did. New York was fighting on our left and Iowa and Ohio on our right. We drove them 12 miles, and Alabama was always in the lead. We had to stop several times and establish a line and wait until our flanks caught up with us.

Company F was represented in this big drive and we let the Kaiser know that Gadsden had raised some scrappers. When we lined up waiting for the word to go, the Boche was trying out some of their eight and 10-inch shells on us and when Captain Wyatt gave the word (over the top) there was a great shout from everyone and we got them started across a big wheat field.

Rushed With Bayonets.
We rushed them with bayonets and they turned and fled. You could hear the boys yelling which one had killed that one. They were as cool as if they had been back at home and they rushed on heedless of a heavy barrage and machine gun fire.

When we had driven them 12 miles, we had several wounded, but very few killed. Some of the boys were wounded two or three times before they would go to a hospital. They were carried off the field crying, not from the wounds, but because they couldn't go on with the company. When we established our line, we had only a few left, and I was one of the lucky ones, didn't get a scratch, although several buttons were cut off of my blouse by machine gun bullets and my gun was shot out of my hand a couple of times.

I can't say too much for the way Captain Wyatt led us on and F company owes her success to him and Lieutenant Greet. Captain Wyatt was like a father to all of the boys when we were in the trenches. I have known him to take his last penny and send back to the lines five or six miles and get cigarettes and sweets for the boys. In the big drive he was very cool and showed much bravery. Although his place was in the rear of the company, he and Lieutenant Greet were at the head of the company until they were wounded, but not seriously.

Lieutenant Takes Command.
After Captain Wyatt was carried off the field, Lieutenant Greet took command of the company. He was an officer that always has a kind word for everyone. He was very cool and deserves much praise for the way he handled the company.

After we had established our lines, I went back to where I had seen him fall with a wound in the leg, and he was sitting up calmly smoking a cigarette. I asked him did he need any help and he said for us to help some of the boys who were hurt worse than he. But we picked him up and carried him to a dressing station and he joked with us all the way down and asked us "Wonder what the Kaiser thinks of Alabama?" That was the kind of officers we had in F company and they are the kind the men like to fight fight behind.

Others Wounded.
Sergeant Howard G. Cooper also showed the Boche that he was there with the goods. He was slightly wounded in the arm.

Sergeant Thompson of Attalla was wounded two or three times before he would go back to the dressing station.

Sergeant Lee Harless was there until the last and did much to keep the company together. He was lucky and didn't get a scratch.

Sergeant Hunt of Centre brought ammunition to us under a terrific bombardment and deserves much credit.

Our mess sergeant, Clayton Bullis, was always on the job and would get our eats to us under any kind of bombardment.

Corp. Emmet Wilson also showed up well. He received a slight wound in the foot.

Corp. Brock Hill of Attalla also showed much bravery. He was wounded in the arm. Privates John Gramling, Walter Christopher, Bob Sitz and Grover Young showed up well. These boys are all from Gadsden and are men you all know. The boys from other places in Alabama showed up as well. They are the men who volunteered to go, and I hope the drafted men show up half as well. Company F has set a pace for them, now let them get over there and show their speed.

Several people have asked me since I have been here about the Rainbow Division being wiped out, saying they have heard about it. But there is nothing to it. We have many wounded and several killed, but the Rainbow will be as strong as ever in a couple of weeks.

When I left they were going back for a long rest, and the boys surely need it. The French often called it the "Iron Division." The men haven't had time to write in the last two months, but guess you will be receiving letters from them in a couple of weeks. Will be at this camp for a couple of weeks and if anyone wants to know anything about any of the boys I will gladly give all the information I can.

NEGRO, CLAIMING TO BE 147 YEARS OLD, DIES
(International News Service)
New York, Sept. 5.—Claiming to be one hundred and forty-seven years old, William Masios, a negro preacher, died here recently after being admitted to Bellevue Hospital.
He answered all questions put to him by the incredulous doctors about revolutionary times, and his answers were so intelligent that the hospital authorities put him on record as being of that age—the oldest patient ever admitted to the hospital.

He told the doctors that Uncle Sam is about to bring the draft age up to forty-five, but that he could give away a hundred years and still be over the draft age. Neighbors say he was born in Richmond, Va., in 1771.

SENSATIONAL TESTIMONIAL
GIVEN FOR QUAKER HERB
EXTRACT BY WELL KNOWN
ALBANY MAN.

Many men and women who have suffered from stomach, liver and kidney troubles are now enjoying perfect health due to QUAKER HERB EXTRACT. Many well known local people are daily calling at the headquarters of the Quaker Man at Thompson's Drug Store in Albany and the Owl Drug Store in Decatur, Ala., and testifying in signed statements what this great medicine QUAKER HERB EXTRACT has done for them. Take for instance the statement made recently by Mr. Mangus Johnson, who resides at 1206 Third Avenue, South Albany, and employed at the L. & N. shops, who said:

"For the past three years I have been troubled with my stomach, my food fermented and caused gas to form and I was in constant pain; I had headaches, dizzy spells and was always constipated; my tongue was coated and I always had a bad taste in my mouth; I had palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, and got so weak I could never sleep at night and got awfully discouraged as I thought I would never get well again. I had heard of QUAKER HERB EXTRACT and thought as a last resort I would try it. I can now truthfully say that I am able to sleep fine, have a good appetite for my meals, have no more aches and pains. QUAKER HERB EXTRACT has made me a well man and I am glad to recommend it to others."

The Quaker Man is at the Owl Drug Store, Decatur, Ala., on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and at Thompson's Drug Store, Albany, Ala., on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of QUAKER HERB EXTRACT. Price $1.00 per bottle or three bottles for $2.50. Free samples given. (Adv.)

What About the Boy?

Who Buys the Boy's Clothing in Your Family?

We will venture the assertion that the mother usually dictates the price and that the boy himself is usually just a little bit "bossy" in regard to style, fit, general appearance, etc.

Experience has taught us that we must bring the boys "champaign taste" and the mother's shrewd, economical purchasing ability together.

We believe you will concede that we have done our part in this direction when you have examined our line.

The WOOLY-BOY manufacturers are not amateurs in the game. They, like ourselves, have given the question pretty close study before reaching their conclusions as to the requirements of the BOY.

Who Can Tell of the Morrow? Don't Delay. Go to Church Next Sunday.

SOME of the young people of today when asked why they do not GO TO CHURCH say that they are too busy having a good time; that they will GO TO CHURCH when they grow old. They'll vehemently declare their belief in God and admit that the church is all right. But they repeat that they will have plenty of time to repent and GO TO CHURCH in their declining years.

How many of these young people are sure that they will live to be old? How many of them can positively say that they will LIVE TO SEE ANOTHER DAY? Procrastination is the thief of time. Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today. If you are having a good time now and neglecting church, GOD MAY NEGLECT YOU when you need him most.

AFTER ALL, THE SO CALLED GOOD TIMES ARE MORE OR LESS EMPTY. YOU'LL HAVE A REAL GOOD TIME IN CHURCH. IT'S THE MAN WITH THE EASY CONSCIENCE WHO HAS THE REAL GOOD TIME IN THIS WORLD. TROUBLED CONSCIENCES RESULT FROM MANY OF THE SO CALLED GOOD TIMES OF TODAY. ISN'T THIS TRUE? THINK IT OVER. GOD WANTS THE YOUNG PEOPLE. THE CHURCH WANTS THE YOUNG PEOPLE. PREACHERS WANT THE YOUNG PEOPLE IN CHURCH. THE LESSONS THAT ARE TAUGHT THERE FIT A MAN OR WOMAN FOR THE BATTLE OF LIFE.

It seems that in every line of endeavor but the church YOUTH IS ENTHUSIASTIC. Why not become enthusiastic over church? Isn't the goal worth while? Every young man and young woman in this community should make it a point to GO TO CHURCH next Sunday. When you were a child you went to church. Why forget the church in the days of early manhood or womanhood? If there ever is a time when you NEED THE CHURCH MOST it is then. It is the MOST CRITICAL PERIOD of your life.

The church is the BULWARK OF THE NATION. You will have to admit that, young people. Then why not help along this grand GO TO CHURCH movement and attend divine service next Sunday?

GO TO CHURCH.
